CAESARSTONE UNVEILS NEW PORCELAIN BRAND FOR MULTI APPLICATIONS: INTRODUCING LIOLI PORCELAIN BY CAESARSTONE LTD

The quartz industry pioneer expands its porcelain portfolio into flooring and cladding

513 Striata Flooring

October 7, 2025 – Canada – Caesarstone is proud to announce the launch of Lioli porcelain by Caesarstone Ltd – a cutting-edge porcelain surface forged by an inspired synergy between Caesarstone, the global pioneer of quartz surfaces and Lioli Ceramica, a pioneer in large-format of porcelain surfaces. The advanced porcelain surfaces are suitable for multi applications. They are driven by Caesarstone's legacy of design, quality and excellence, and present endless opportunities for flooring, cladding and other applications both indoors and out.

“In Canada, designers and architects turn to porcelain surfaces for their versatility across applications. Lioli porcelain by Caesarstone Ltd. brings world-class innovation followed by new collections, delivering large-format slabs that combine beauty and performance,” said Ken Williams, President of Caesarstone Canada.

BEAUTY LED BY INNOVATION

Alongside the introduction of the Lioli porcelain brand, Caesarstone is proud to launch a new collection, featuring a variety of new surface colours. The new Lioli porcelain collection by Caesarstone Ltd is grounded in sense-stimulating richness and deep tactility. Lioli Sensorial Tech™ technology is expertly harnessed to craft cracked, fossilized and grained textures, incorporating effects that echo the topography of natural stone.

The inaugural 2025 Lioli Porcelain collection features a carefully curated range of 6mm slabs, engineered for multi-applications such as flooring and wall cladding. Each design combines timeless aesthetics with advanced material innovation, delivering refined, tactile surfaces that perform as beautifully as they look.
